Giving financially to St John's in the City

As followers of Jesus, we are called to participate in His mission and ministry. This includes giving of our financial resources. At St John's in the City, we hope that each person who sees themselves as part of the St John's family will carefully consider what they can contribute, both regularly and to our special appeals.

Payments to St John's in the City can be made during our Sunday services, through automatic payments or through internet banking. You can support the regular work of the Church and also special appeals.

St John's in the City is a registered charity so all giving is tax-deductible (ie, for every dollar you give over $5, you can get 33 cents back from the Inland Revenue Department). To be able to apply for the refund you will need to include your name (or number – see below) with your financial giving so we can keep a record and provide you with a tax receipt at the end of the financial year. To help the work of the Church even more, you could consider giving your tax refund to St John's as well!

If you wish to keep your giving completely confidential, please contact the Envelope Secretary, Linda Van Milligan (04 478 7089) or email lmvm@xtra.co.nz and ask for a donor number.

Internet Banking: The following details will help you set up automatic payments online or to make one-off contributions:

Bank: BNZ

Branch: Wellington

Account name: St John's Presbyterian Church

Account number: 02-0500-0021908-000

In the "particulars" line add your name (or donor number) and whether you are giving to general use or to a special appeal (eg "Smith, general" or "Jones, A&J Mission").

You can also use these details to make a payment with a mobile phone app.

Automatic payments: Automatic payment forms are available in the church foyer before or after the service, or on the Church website, www.stjohnsinthecity.org.nz

If you have any questions, please ask an elder, or those on door duty before or after the service. Alternatively, contact the Church Office, phone (04) 385 1546 or email enquiries@stjohnsinthecity.org.nz

Making a Bequest
